ROYAL FAMILY OF MONTENEGRO NOW HOMELESS

QUEEN MILENA AND TWO OF DAUGHTERS PASS THROUGH ROME TO JOIN FAST-GROWING COLONY OF EXILES IN FRANCE

QUIET ON BATTLE FRONTS

Comparative Calm Prevails in East and West Because of Weather Conditions—Russia Victory Over Turks in Caucasus May Relieve British in Mesopotamia

NOTE Jan. 22.—An READING occurs among the Central Powers against the British between Queen Milena of Montenegro and her two daughters, who are accompanied by a host of British exiles residing in Rome.

Both are seriously concerned again. The meeting is regarded as proof that Montenegro will cling to the side of the Allies and of the war. The royal family of Montenegro left a few days ago for France.

QUIET ON BATTLE FRONTS

No important military operations are in progress on the principal fronts, but according to reliable sources, Montenegro is probably the most active. The British have been attacking the Caucasus, and that Montenegro has been aiding them while it is not known exactly what they have accomplished.

There are no objectives on the frontiers of Montenegro probably to indicate major military operations ahead during this.

Defeat of Turkey by the Russians in Caucasus leaves the former to rearguard, but is important as it may have forced handing over of British positions in Armenia, as the Turks will be helped by additional forces from Asia for the defense of Eastern Turkey.

TURKISH SHIPS SUNK.

READING, Jan. 22.—Russian torpedo boats in the Black Sea have sunk the Turkish ships leading with their crews. There are no ships taken prisoners.

KING NICHOLAS ALSO FLEEING.

READING, Jan. 22.—King Nicholas of Montenegro has arrived at Trieste according to some reports received here tonight. The Montenegrin king is reported to be en route to Italy for an endeavor to find the Romans in Albania.

PRIVATE M'BROOM WILL LECTURE TO BOY SCOUTS

Chattanooga Man Enlisted in Service of Army for Four Years to Better Serve Boy Scouts

FRIEDRICH M'BROOM, of Company A, First Infantry, stationed here for the Exposition, will deliver an address to the boys of all schools at the Episcopal Church on "The Good Shepherd on This Great Movement." He is a resident of Chattanooga and spent two years in the city in the interest of the boys as well prior to his enrollment in the Army. He joined the Army for the same purpose, but for the benefit of his country.

When his enlistment term expires he will return to his Boy Scout work in Chattanooga and is greatly interested. Scouts here urge that all of the Scouts report at the Parish House instead of in school to attend the lectures. All members of the Senior Council are also requested to attend.

STATE TO GET ON CASH BASIS

AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—By February 1st the bonds, according to State Treasurer J. M. Edwards, Texas will be on permanent cash basis and will be able to meet all revenue and pension expenses.

Although tax collections are being collected daily in large amounts to the Treasury, there are several large counties still out, and when these have been collected there will be enough money to pay off the pension warrants particularly that are now being held up on account of shortage of funds in that account.

GARRISON'S DEFENSE PLAN IS ENDORSED

SECRETARY OF WAR'S PROPOSALS FOR INCREASING ARMY FINDS FAVOR WITH SECURITY LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The National Security League today voted endorsement of Secretary of War Garrison's efforts to enlarge the nation's military forces.

Plans were formed to consolidate all interested organizations into a National Defense League with Robert Garrison as president.
